Sermon: Who Do You Say I Am: Jesus Our King

Main text: John 12:14-15

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does this story tell me about God?

2. What does this story tell me about people (or about myself)?

3. If this is God's word for my life, how will I obey it?

4. Who am I, going to tell?

Other, Key quotes; points and questions to reflect on and discuss from Brett message:

"In the very next section, John is going to tell of the coming of the Greeks to Jesus. The first people of that wider world, the first seekers from outside, are about to come. There was more truth in what the Pharisees said than they knew."

William Barclay

"To Jesus belongs the kingdom, the power and glory, for ever and ever. Jesus has no fixed term of office, there are no presidential or prime-ministerial elections, he has no successors, no rivals, no equals, there is no contest. Jesus was King before time and will be King when time has run its race."

Simon Ponsonby, Amazed by Jesus

Other Questions to Reflect on:

In your group, share your current understanding of Jesus' identity. Has your answer changed over time?

What prompted Peter's bold confession, and what might God use in your life to ignite a similar revelation?

How does calling Jesus "Messiah" affect your daily decisions, relationships, and sense of purpose?

What expectations or preconceptions might you need to let go of to see Jesus more clearly?

How can you share your personal "Who do you say I am?" response with someone this week?
